

Amman Stock Exchange receives a delegation from the Jordanian Judicial Institute

June 16, 2025

On Sunday, June 15, 2025, the Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) received a delegation from the Jordanian Judicial Institute as part of a field visit to the Jordanian capital market institutions (the Jordan Securities Commission, the Amman Stock Exchange, and the Securities Depository Center) with the aim of reviewing the trading mechanism at the ASE, gain insight into the roles and services provided by the capital market institutions, and understand the regulatory and legal frameworks governing their operations.

The CEO of the ASE, Mazen Wathaifi, welcomed the delegation, emphasizing that this visit comes within the framework of the capital market institutions' efforts to strengthen its cooperation with national academic and educational institutions, and to promote awareness and knowledge related to the securities market and the operations of its institutions.

Where Mr. Mohammad Shneawer, Assistant CEO for Operations & Business Development, provided an overview of the ASE's operations, highlighting key developments in the market and future projects. He also delivered a detailed explanation of the trading mechanism accompanied by a live stream of the trading session. During the session, he highlighted the main features and advantages of the electronic trading system currently in use.

At the end of the visit, the floor was opened for discussion and answers to students' questions and inquiries about everything related to Jordan Capital Market institutions in general and the Amman Stock Exchange in particular.
