

ASE Re-Elected to the Board of Directors of the Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchanges

June 24, 2025

The Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) was re-elected with the highest number of votes as a member of the Board of Directors of the Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchanges (FEAS). This came during the participation of the ASE, represented by its CEO, Mazen Al-Wathaifi, in the 41st Annual General Meeting of the Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchanges (FEAS) via videoconference, which was held in Yerevan, Armenia, and organized by the Armenian Stock Exchange.

During the meeting, the Jordan Securities Depository Center (SDC) was elected as a new member of the Board. The Bucharest Stock Exchange was elected as Chairman of the Board of Directors, and the Abu Dhabi Securities Market as Vice Chairman. In addition to the Amman Stock Exchange and the Securities Depository Center, the Armenian Stock Exchange, the Muscat Stock Exchange, the Kazakhstan Stock Exchange, the Palestine Stock Exchange, the Tehran Stock Exchange, the Athens Stock Exchange, and the Central Securities Depository Company of Iran were elected.

A statement issued by the ASE indicated that the re-election of the ASE and the SDC as members of the Federation's Board of Directors came in appreciation by the FEAS members of these two national institutions and their efforts over the past years to achieve the Federation's objectives and develop and modernize the technical and legislative frameworks in the national capital market in accordance with the latest international standards and practices.

It's worth noting that the meeting was attended by the chief executives of the 47-member. The aim is to strengthen relations between member states and advance the technical and legislative frameworks in their markets.
