

Amman Stock Exchange receives the Financial Services Companies Syndicate Council

July 10, 2025

On Tuesday, July 8, 2025, the CEO of ASE, Mazen Wathaifi, received the Board of Directors of the Financial Services Companies Association, headed by Dr. Mohammad Abdul Sattar Jaradat, the Syndicate's President. This comes as part of strengthening the ongoing joint cooperation between the ASE and the Association.

Wathaifi and the Syndicate Council discussed ways to enhance communication and cooperation between the two parties, emphasizing the important role of financial services companies in enhancing efforts to support the ASE's activity and investment therein. He also provided an explanation of the most important developments witnessed by the ASE and the positive performance indicators since the beginning of the year, as well as the challenges facing the ASE and the national capital market in general.

In turn, the Syndicate's Chairman and members provided an explanation of the challenges and issues facing the financial services sector, emphasizing the importance of continuing dialogue and coordination with the ASE and market institutions to serve the market, the public interest, and the development of the Kingdom's investment environment.

At the end of the meeting, the Syndicate Council commended the Amman Stock Exchange's efforts in developing the market, affirming the Syndicate's continued readiness to cooperate in all efforts to support and develop the national capital market.
